EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND DIVISION

2009 JUN 29 AM 10: 53

RICHMOND DIVISION

IN RE Circuit City Stores

Chapter 11

Case No 08-35653

Debtor

Jointly Administered

Response to Omnibus Motion Objecting to Claim

1. Claimant is holder of claim number 10306
2. On December 11, 2008 this court set a claim date of January 30, 2009 at 5:00pm,
3. The claimant mailed copies of claim on January 15, 2009 1/17/2009 at the Ridge Branch United States Post office Richmond, VA. A copy of the Post Office receipt is included with this response.
4. That registered letter required the authorized claims processing company to acknowledge receipt thereof. They did so on January 27, 2009. See copy of US Post Office return receipt dated January 27, 2009.
5. Nevertheless, the Claims processing company and the debtor's lawyers have stated that the claim was received on February 2, 2009.

Argument

6. In spite of the fact that Circuit City was headquartered in Richmond Virginia the Court at the request of the attorneys for the debtor hired a company in El Segundo, Ca. This meant that claimants in the headquarter city and elsewhere were required to find a way to deliver their claim to this company presumably paid by the creditors with claims in California.
7. It is not unreasonable for claimants to use the US Postal service. IT is unreasonable for the claims processing company to misinform the debtor's lawyers and the court when they knew or should have known that they have the facts wrong.

8. This Court approved a procedure where claims could be objected to by attorney's for the debtor that requires the claimant to deliver to three attorneys in three different cities. Again the claimant is expected to either use the US POSTAL service or other means to notify the court that the claims processing company has mislead the lawyers and the court and notify three lawyers in three cities. Is this a cheap lawyer trick? Are creditors of the company required to pay three lawyers to read each letter?

10. This claim was filed according to the rules on time. Please read the attachments.

Wherefore, the claimant requests that the Court not rule in favor of the Debtors, their attorney's or the claim processing company. Please schedule a hearing so that the Judge can see what a poor job you are doing.

Respectfully Submitted
